The founding members of the association are exempted from paying the entrance fee but remain subject to the annual fee.

ARTICLE 7 - APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP AND ADMITTANCE

Applying for membership shall be made in writing to the president of the board of directors by means of completing and returning an entry form.

The president shall check whether the applicant fulfils the conditions of admittance mentioned below, in which case he approves the applicant admittance within two weeks after having received the application form.

The president shall inform the applicant of its decision as soon as possible.

In case of refusal, the applicant one shall be able to appeal the president decision within on month after having received the refusal notice.

Such appeal shall be made before the board of directors, which will irrevocably decide on the applicant's admittance request.

Admittance to the association is subject to (i) payment to the association of the entrance fee and, for the current year, the annual fee, and (ii) the entering into the connection agreement ("contrat de connexion") with France IX SAS, which terms and conditions are set by the board of directors.

In case of admittance, the new member acknowledges he is aware of the content of these articles of association and undertakes to comply with its provisions.

ARTICLE 8 - END OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall end automatically :

- by resignation sent to the president of the association ;
- by death;
- by disappearance or liquidation (for legal entity members);
- by failure to comply with the undertakings set forth in articles 6, 7 and 9 of these bylaws.

Membership shall also end by dismissal of the member decided by the association, in case of :

- bankruptcy of the member;
- dissolution of the member;
- lack of compliance by a member with its obligations towards the association, other than those above-mentioned and towards France IX Services SAS after having been summoned by the president or the treasurer to do so,;
- Serious damage caused to the association or to France IX Services SAS, notably to their reputation.

Dismissal of a member shall be validly decided by the board of directors at a 2/3rd majority of the board members present or represented and voting (the member facing does not take part to the vote if it is also member of the board). The member facing dismissal must have been enabled to express its comments before the vote.

- interest income from the association's property ;
- income from services supplied by the association ;
- contributions in cash or "industrie" (work skills, services, know-how...), notably through loans or donation;
- any other source authorized by law.

ARTICLE 10 - MANAGEMENT

1 - The association is managed by a board of directors composed of six board members appointed by the general meeting at a 2/3rd majority of the members present or represented and voting.

The four first directors will be appointed by the first general meeting held on the date of signature of the first articles of association.

The remaining two directors shall be appointed by the general meeting within six months as from the incorporation of the creation of the association upon proposal of the founding members.

The first six directors above-mentioned (the “First Directors”) will compose the First Board.

The First Directors’ term of office shall be set to three, four or five years, depending on the draws by lot hereinafter set forth, and shall expire, as the case may be, on the date of the general meeting deciding on the association’s third, fourth or fifth financial year accounts.

The term of office of directors appointed after the First Directors is set to 3 years.

As from the general meeting deciding on the association’s third financial year, 1/3rd of the directors will be renewed each year. Each leaving director can hold only two consecutive offices. The four leaving First Directors will be designated through a draw by lot among the First Directors during the board of directors meeting held prior to the general meeting deciding on the association’s third and fourth financial year accounts.

Directors can be dismissed “ad nutum” (without justification) any time by the general meeting deciding on such dismissal at a 2/3rd majority of the members present or represented and voting, without possibility for the dismissed director to claim for any damage.

2 - Board of directors members may be individuals or legal entities, members of the association or not.

In the event a legal entity is appointed as a director, its legal representative shall be deemed to be its permanent representative for the duration of the legal entity director's term of office. Otherwise, it shall be bound to appoint, in order to attend meetings of the board of directors and generally to perform such duties as a director, a permanent representative for the duration of the legal entity Director's term of office, who shall be subject to the same requirements and obligations and to the same civil and criminal liability as a director in a personal capacity.

In the event of death, resignation or dismissal of its permanent representative, the legal entity director shall be bound to notify such discontinuation promptly to the association, by registered mail return receipt requested, together with the identity of its new permanent representative.

The board of directors chooses at the majority of attending or represented directors, among or outside the directors, a president, a secretary and a treasurer.

The president, the treasurer and the secretary can be dismissed “ad nutum” (without justification) any time by the general meeting deciding on such dismissal at the simple majority, without possibility for the dismissed director to claim for any damage.

3 - In case of vacancy of a member, the board of directors temporarily appoints a replacement member. Such appointment shall be ratified by the nearest general meeting.

Any board of directors member can be re-appointed once.

Board of directors members functions cease by resignation or revocation decided by the general meeting at a 2/3rd majority of the members present or represented and voting, by death, resignation or expiration of term of office.

The remuneration of each board of directors member shall be determined by the general meeting.

4 - The board of directors decisions are transcribed in minutes signed by the president of the board of directors and the secretary who are entitled to deliver copies or extracts of said minutes.

The minutes are recorded in a specific register kept at the association registered office.

The president shall be authorized to invite any individual to attend a specific board of directors meeting if he deems this necessary.

ARTICLE 11 - POWERS AND DECISIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors has the broadest powers to manage the association within the limits of its purpose, without prejudice of the powers granted to the general meeting, and is entrusted with the regular functioning of the association.

It implements the decisions and policies decided by the general meeting. It takes all necessary decisions relating to the association management and is accountable to the general meeting for its management decisions.

The board of directors determines the main orientations and policy for the association activity and ensure they are implemented. It determines the annual budget and closes the association 's accounts.

Without prejudice of the decisions listed in Article 12, decisions of the board of directors are validly taken by the majority of the votes of attending board members. In the event of an equality of votes, the president's vote is decisive.

The board of directors can validly take decisions if at least half of the directors are attending the meeting or are represented.

A board member can be represented by another board member holding a proper proxy. There is no limit to the number of proxies a board member can hold.

The board of directors meets upon call from its president or three board members as many times as necessary but at least three times a year.

ARTICLE 12 - PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The president of the board of directors is entrusted with the implementation of the board of directors' decisions.

The president represents the association in every actions of its civil life and has the broadest powers for this purpose. He has, notably, the capacity to bring legal actions on behalf of the association.

The president shall not take any of the following actions without the prior consent of the board of directors deciding at a 5/6th majority of attending and represented directors:

1. The exercise by the association, in its capacity of shareholder of its voting rights in any company or grouping, in particular in France IX Services SAS;
2. The carrying out of any transaction in accordance with conditions other than those of the market;
3. The creation of any activity that is not substantially similar or related to existing activities;
4. Any hiring, dismissal or modification of the responsibilities or duties or terms of the employment contract of an executive employed by the association;
5. Any changes in the principles, practices or basis of the association's accounting system, except when these changes are required by law;
6. The assessment of the annual accounts;
7. Any action in view of the dissolution or liquidation of the association;
8. The adoption of the annual business plan and operating budget, and any modification of the sums thereby approved representing a variation of more than 10%;
9. Entering into any loan (including debenture loans), credit line or bank outstanding for unit amounts exceeding €1,000;
10. The granting of any surety, guarantee or off-balance sheet liability, granting of any surety against the association's assets for unit amounts exceeding € 1,000;
11. Purchase, sale, contribution of the association's tangible and intangible assets for amounts exceeding € 1,000;
12. Business purchase, sale, contribution, take or grant of lease management;
13. The acquisition, subscription, trading or disposal of marketable securities (even one single share) or companies, the incorporation, closure or contribution of subsidiaries or branches;
14. Modification of the terms of the connection agreement as provided in Article 7 above;
15. Delegation to anyone of his powers.

It is however specified that that operations and commitments resulting from the implementation of the business plan or the operational budget mentioned in paragraph 8 above will not need the prior authorization of the board of directors.

The president convenes and presides the general meetings.

In case of absence or illness, another member of the association appointed by the board of directors replaces him.

However, the capacity to represent the association before Courts can only be exercised, if not by the president, by a proxy holding a specific delegation from him.

The president ensures the new members enter into the connection agreement with France IX Services SAS.

ARTICLE 13 - SECRETARY

The board of directors appoints among or outside its members a secretary, entrusted with all matter relating to correspondence and archives.

He sends the convocations to board of directors and general meetings, drafts the board of directors and general meeting minutes and, more broadly, all written acts relating to the regular functioning of the association, except those relating to accounting matters.

He holds the register under the terms of section 5 of the July 1, 1901 Law and sections 6 and 31 of the August 16, 1901 Decree. He implements the formalities required by these provisions.

The secretary's term of office is set by the decision upon which he is appointed. The secretary's office can cease under the same conditions than the president's one.

ARTICLE 14 - TREASURER

The board of directors also appoints among or outside its members a treasurer, entrusted with the accounting management of the association.

He holds a regular accounting of the association's operations. He is in charge or delegates under his responsibility the bookkeeping of the association.

He calls for the payment of fees due by the members. He proceeds, under the control of the president of the board of directors, to payments and receptions of any sum.

He prepares a report on the financial situation of the association and addresses such report to the general meeting.

The treasurer's term of office is set by the decision upon which he is appointed. The secretary's office can cease under the same conditions than the president's one.

ARTICLE 15 - GENERAL MEETINGS

1- General meetings of the association are composed of all members in compliance with the connection agreement and with all their obligations vis-à-vis the association.

General meetings are either ordinary or extraordinary.

A member can be represented by another member holding a proper proxy. There is no limit to the number of proxies a member can hold.

Each member has one vote.

Mail poll is forbidden.

The company France IX Services will be invited to assist to all the general meetings (with no voting right).

The President will also be entitled to invite third parties to assist to the general meeting as observers (with no voting right).

2- The president of the board of directors convenes the general meetings.

Convening of general meetings is made by any written mean mentioning the agenda set by the board of directors and sent by the secretary to each member at least fifteen (15) days before the meeting date. This time period may be reduced in case of justified urgency.

General meetings can only decide on matters mentioned in the agenda, which is set by the president of the board of directors.

3- General meetings take place at the association's registered office or at any other location in France or abroad specified in the convocation.

4- The general meeting is presided by the president of the board of directors or in case of absence by the member appointed by the general meeting.

5- An attendance sheet is signed by the member when entering the session. The president of the board of directors and the secretary certify such attendance sheet.

6- The general meetings' decisions are transcribed in minutes specifying a summary of discussions, the text of resolutions and the votes results. The president of the board of directors and the secretary sign the minutes.

The minutes are recorded in the general meetings minutes register

Decisions of the general meeting are voted by show of hands. A vote by ballot can be organized if asked by the majority of attending members.

ARTICLE 16 - ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

1- The general meeting is convened by the president of the board of directors at least once a year, and each time it is necessary. It may also be convened by at least 1/3rd of the board of directors or association members.

The general meeting hears the management report and the report on the association's financial situation prepared by the board of directors.

The general meeting votes on the accounts approval, appoints the board of directors members or ratifies temporary appointments.

2- The general meeting can validly take decisions if at least 1/4th of the members are attending the meeting or are represented.

If this quorum is not reached, the general meeting is reconvened with the same agenda, at least eight (8) days before the meeting date. This reconvened general meeting can deliberate on the agenda even if the 1/4th quorum is not reached.

Without prejudice of decisions mentioned in Article 10 above and relating to the association's managers, decisions are taken at the majority of attending and represented members.

In the event of an equality of votes, the president's vote is decisive.

Only members having paid the required fees are entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 17 - EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

Only the extraordinary general meeting is entitled to modify these articles of association, decide the dissolution of the association and the vesting of its assets, or its merger with another association.

Modification of the bylaws can be proposed to the extraordinary general meeting only by the board of directors.

The extraordinary general meeting can validly take decisions if at least 1/3rd of the members are attending the meeting or are represented.

If this quorum is not reached, the extraordinary general meeting is reconvened with the same agenda, at least eight (8) days before the meeting date. This reconvened general meeting can deliberate on the agenda even if the 1/3rd quorum is not reached.

Decisions are taken at the majority of 2/3rd of the votes of the members attending or represented.

Only members having paid the required fees are entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 18 - FISCAL YEAR

The association's fiscal year starts on July 1st and ends on June 30th.

By way of exception, the first fiscal year will start on the clear day following the publication of the association to the French Official Gazette and will end on June 30, 2011.

ARTICLE 19 - COMMISSAIRES AUX COMPTES

The general meeting may appoint a statutory auditor. The statutory auditor fulfills his mission in the framework of the rules applicable to his profession.

ARTICLE 20 - DISSOLUTION

In case of dissolution, the extraordinary general meeting appoints one or several liquidators in charge of the liquidation operations. The association's assets, if need be, are vested according to the provisions of article 9 of the July 1, 1901 Law and the August 16, 1901 Decree.

ARTICLE 21 - CODE OF CONDUCT

The board of directors may, if it sees fit to, establish and internal code of conduct governing the practical modalities of the association's functioning.

The code of conduct shall be ratified by the general meeting.

ARTICLE 22 - FORMALITIES

The president, on behalf of the board of directors, shall carry out the declaration and publication formalities under the terms of the July 1, 1901 Law and the August 16, 1901 Decree. All powers are granted to a bearer of these articles of association with effect to carry out such formalities.
